A report on the Mentors' Camp

A 13-day Mentors' camp has been conducted by the department of English from June 1, 2016 to June 15, 2016. The aim of the camp is to inculcate the habit of speaking in English and develop the LSRW skills both among the students and faculty. This innovative programme aims at converting the campus into English speaking one. The mastermind behind this camp is our beloved Ayya, Prof. M. Ponnambalam, M.A., M.Sc.,

It is our cheerful, dynamic and energetic President Er. Pon Balasubramanian, who has been guiding, supporting and helping us right from the first day till the present moment.

Both second and third year students from all the departments based on their Part II English performance and by the recommendation of the teachers were shortlisted and selected as mentors. Around 75 students registered their names 58 students turned out to be regular participants. These students were divided into 11 groups with 5 members each.

We worked for 13 days. Each day we had different activities. During the morning sessions the teacher in charge of the groups gave the students work. In the afternoon session we played them motivational movies, rhymes, video clippings. This was followed by questioning sessions.

The details of the syllabus covered are as follows:

1. Self Introduction
2. Introducing others
3. Spell-bee
4. Story-telling
5. Vocabulary
6. Building games
7. News paper reading
8. Speech by the students
9. Cross-word puzzles
10. Describing a picture
11. Tongue Twisters
12. Missing letters in words
13. Opposites, Adjectives
14. Make sentences
15. Reading Practice
16. Prefix
17. Suffix
18. Names of Vegetables, fruits, animals
19. Homophones
20. Singular, Plural
21. Field visit to Ayya's farm
22. Good manners and safety on roads
23. Happy feet.

On 11 June 2016 [Saturday] we had a guest speaker Mrs. Onita Decruz , a language trainer, an orator. She engaged our students for the whole day and made the students involve in many activities – Self introduction, Introducing others, Picture comprehension and Description, Quotations, Reading Practice, Describe our college. Her session was very lively. Interactive and very useful. She gave us many inputs. She encouraged the students very much.

We hope this camp has made the students to shed their fears and helped them a lot to promote a positive attitude and has built confidence in them. These 58 mentors will be allotted 10-15 mentees. They are going to play a vital role in transforming our campus into English speaking one.

A report on the Mentors' Camp

A 13 day Mentors' Camp has been conducted by the department of English inaugurated on the June 01, 2016 to inculcate the habit of speaking in English and to develop the LSRW skills. Prof. Sundarlakshmi, head of the department welcomed the invitees and the principal of the college, Dr. T. Jayaprakasam presided the inaugural and the same was felicitated by Prof. M. Ponnambalam, Chairman – college governing body, Mr. Pon. Balasubramniam, President – college committee, Mr. Pon. Ravichandran – Secretary, Dr. A. Prabhakaran, Dean and Mr. Jeyaram the placement officer.

Both I and II year students with outstanding performance in Part II (Language paper) and students recommended by the faculty were shortlisted and chosen to be the participants of the mentors' camp. 58 such students were made in to 11 groups with 5 participants in each. The groups were monitored and evaluated by a staff in charge of each group and the groups were given various assignments and tasks to build their spoken ability. They were shown motivational videos, inspiring speeches, young achievers, and real time challenges and the days were closed with interaction sessions among peers.

On the tenth day of the event, a special guest Ms. Owenita De Cruz was invited to encourage the participants and it is delightful her session was lively and appreciated by both the faculty and the participants of the camp.

With all the positive enthusiasm, the valediction commenced at 10.30 a.m. on the June 15, 2016, at the seminar hall of the college. Valediction programme was solely arranged by the trained mentors with a little guidance from the faculty. Each group performed and demonstrated their abilities in the presence of the Management and received feedbacks from the experts. Participants were honoured with certification on completion of the programme. Prof. M. Ponnambalam, Chairman – College governing body shared his experience dating 1945's and stressed the importance of etiquette and comprehensive communication in English. The programme ended with the distribution of certificates to the mentors and special appreciation tokens to the staff.
