

WORKSHOP ON DATA SCIENCE TOOLS - INDUSTRIAL PERSPECTIVE

The department of Data science organized the Workshop on Data Science Tools - Industrial Perspective on 29.12.2018. The inaugural started at 10.00 am in the ICT Hall. Mrs.S.MALA, Assistant Professor, Department of Data Science welcomed the gathering.

Dr. A.R.PONPERIASAMY, Principal, Nehru Memorial College presided over the function.

Dr.M.MURALIDARAN, Head of the Department, Department of Computer Science & Placement Coordinator - Dr.R.MANIMEKALAI, Placement in-charge – Mr.R.JAYARAMAN honoured the function. The chief guest Mrs. SWATHIHEMANAND, Lead Big data Analyst, SPXFLOW, Ozone Manay Tech Park, Bangalore delivered the keynote address and special interacting session with hands on experience on “Data Science Tools – Industrial Perspective”.

o She began the presentation by introduction and important concepts of data science and created a predictive model using Excel and Jupiter. She explained model creation in various tools with the case studies. Further she pointed out the importance of reporting tools in data science and implemented those for real time data set. Finally she concluded the needs of data science tools for data analysis. She gave guidance for attending interview, to the participants. More than 150 students from various departments were participated and benefited through this programme.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, successful participants received the certificates by the Chief Guest, Mrs. SWATHIHEMANAD and President, Er.PON.BALASUBRAMANIAN.

Mr. P.PARTHIBAN, Department of Data Science, Nehru Memorial College proposed vote of thanks.