- + Name of programme: UG and PG Physics Association Seminar
- + Title : Photosensitive Hetrostructured Nanomaterials for Energy and Environmental Applications
- + Date : 21-3-2022
- + Time : 10 am to 1 pm
- + Venue : ICT Hall 1 (First Floor)
- + Organized by College/Dept : Physics Department
- + Staff In-charge/ Organizer : Head Of the Department
- + Guest Profile 1: Dr. A.Viswanathan, Assistant Professor, Dept.of Physics, Anna University, BIT Campus Tiruchirappalli. He completed his Post Doctoral Fellowship at IISc Bangalore for One year and in Toronto University, Canada for short term. Visited many countries. He has published papers in many reputed journals and reviewer for Elsevier and Springer group of journals.

EXTRAORDINARY MEETING OF PHYSICS ASSOCIATION

(21.03.2022)

REPORT

PG & Research Department of Physics conducted an extra-ordinary meeting of Physics association. Dr.S.Kumararaman Vice-Principal, Nehru Memorial College, has inaugurated both the PG and UG Physics associations. Prof.K.Nagarajan HOD of Physics gave the welcome address. Dr.A.Venkatesan Associate Professor of Physics has offered the felicitations. Dr.A.Rajendran, Associate Professor of Physics has offered his felicitations.

Lt. Dr.A.Viswanathan, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, Anna University, BIT Campus Tiruchirapalli, has delivered a special lecture on the topic

“Photosensitive Hetrostructured Nanomaterials for Energy and Environmental Applications”.

His lecture is of immense importance to the students to understand the fundamentals of nanotechnology and its use in energy conservation. Dr.A.Viswanathan kindled lot of interest among the Physics students to pursue research in future, in the fascinating field of nanotechnology. About 130 students have participated in the function. PG students have interacted well with the chief guest and clarified their doubts. Dr.A.Rajendran, Associate Professor of Physics took pains in arranging as well as the successful conduct of the function.

S.Sowndaraj, UG Association secretary proposed the vote of thanks
